

Supplementary terms and conditions for Spotify, HBO, Zetland and Flipp

August 2017

1. Supplementary agreement

These Supplementary Terms and Conditions apply to the streaming services Spotify and HBO and to Zetland and Flipp (collectively referred to as the "Services") and are a supplement to the General Terms and Conditions for Telia Danmark's Communication Services (Enterprise). In case of conflict, these Supplementary Terms and Conditions take precedence over the General Terms and Conditions.

The Services can be purchased by the Customer on top of selected subscriptions.

2. Payment

The selected services are payable in advance with the mobile subscription.

3. Services sold as included in the subscription

The Services may be included in selected subscriptions for a period of 6, 12 or 24 months, within which they cannot be terminated. At the end of the period, the Customer will automatically be switched to taking the Services as a paid service. The Customer will receive a text notification of this change five days before the end of the period. If the Customer does not wish to keep the Services, it is the Customer's responsibility to de-activate the service before the end of the period. The text notification includes a note on how to terminate the Services.

4. Services purchased specially for the subscription

The Services can also be purchased by the Customer as an ongoing subscription.

5. Data traffic

The Services require access to a data connection, and their use of data is not covered by the subscription to the Services.
